

GA - 91

BARRETT'S DELIGHT (SITE) - 1820 - Bosley Road, 0.4 mile west of Pot Spring Road. The land here was purchased in 1718 by John Talbott from Alice Barrett. The first dwelling, a log cabin, was replaced by a two-story stone-stuccoed Federal styled five-bay, gable-roofed house. One wing dates from 1820. One-bay entrance portico. Also a family burial ground. Also a pyramid roofed stone spring house. In 1962, the property became Dulaney Springs Golf Course and house was converted to manager's residence. In September of 1979, house was vacant, the links being developed as apartments. Demolished, 1984.
